

KIMBERLY AMPHITHEATER

“A Cultural Arts Facility for the Fox Cities”

The Kimberly Amphitheater is owned by the Village of Kimberly, with the operation of the facility under the direction of the Community Enrichment Director in conjunction with the Kimberly Amphitheater Board of Directors.

The rules and regulations governing the operations of the Kimberly Amphitheater, have been established by the Kimberly Amphitheater Board of Directors and adopted by the Village of Kimberly Board of Trustees, in order to provide a safe and functional operation plan for the Kimberly Amphitheater, Sunset Park and the Village of Kimberly.

Any variations from these rules and regulations may only occur with the authorization of the Village Board of Trustees. Written requests for variations must be submitted to the Community Enrichment Director at least one (1) month prior to the start of the scheduled activity or event.

RESERVATION INFORMATION

The Kimberly Park & Recreation Department, under the administration of the Community Enrichment Director, will handle all reservations and scheduling of events for the Kimberly Amphitheater. Requests for usage will be made on a priority basis. The Amphitheater is established for presentations, programs, and the arts. The Amphitheater is not a picnic shelter and will not be rented out for usage as such.

The Community Enrichment Director shall determine, based on significance of the event, the priority and usage if a conflict should exist. Amphitheater reservations may be scheduled up to one year in advance, in order to provide event sponsors adequate time for planning and promotion.

Reservations, information, permits, and keys for the Amphitheater may be obtained at:
